

Habitat-North Central Georgia is committed to a policy of fair housing and fair treatment of all of its homeowners. The ministry can achieve its mission only by making its homes available to all prospective homeowners on a fair and equal basis.

It is the policy of Habitat-NCG not to discriminate against any prospective homeowners on the basis of race, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, age or physical disability. While Habitat-NCG is a Christian ministry, it is made up of people from all walks of life who work together in partnership to build houses for, and with, families in need. Habitat-NCG's homeownership program is open to all people, regardless of race, religion, color or creed, who meet income guidelines and other selection criteria.

Without limiting the foregoing, it is the policy of Habitat-NCG to comply with all federal, state and local laws and regulations – including the Federal Fair Housing Law, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 – which prohibit discrimination in housing. All employees of Habitat-NCG are required to abide by the letter and spirit of such laws and regulations and to report violations or threatened violations to their supervisors or the Board of Directors.

In order to implement this policy, Habitat-NCG, as set forth in Policy No. 1.05, shall maintain an Affirmative Marketing Program, advertise that it complies with the letter and spirit of the Federal Fair Housing Law, and comply with the advertising requirements of the Federal Fair Housing Law pertaining to Equal Housing Opportunity.
